

JBSA

Environmental Policy

JBSA is committed to providing a world-class military installation that provides for the safety, energy-efficiency, pollution prevention, environmental conservation and mission enhancement for our personnel, facilities and operations.

Stop Pollution

Obey Laws

Always Improve

Reduce Waste

JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO ENVIRONMENTAL OFFICES

Lackland Air Force Base
210-671-4844

Fort Sam Houston
210-221-1142

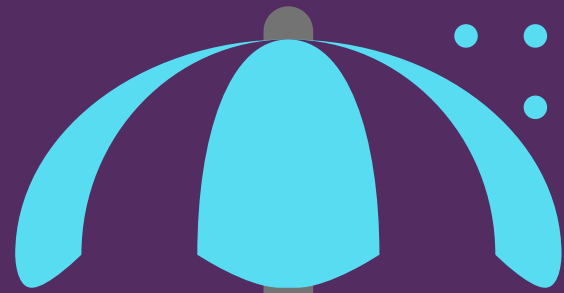

Randolph Air Force Base
210-652-4668
Camp Bullis
210-295-8339

JBSA Environmental Management System (EMS)

EVERYONE HAS A ROLE IN EMS

EMS

Air Quality

Water Quality

Qualified Recycling Program
(QRP)

Fuel/Petroleum, Oil, Lubricants
(POL)/Tanks

Hazardous Materials

Hazardous Waste

Toxic Substances

Natural Resources

Cultural Resources

National Environmental Policy
Act (NEPA)

Pollution Prevention

WHAT IS MY PART?

- Know the JBSA Environmental Policy
- Recognize the environmental impacts of your job
- Identify and correct problems
- Reduce your environmental footprint
- Suggest ways to improve

Contact your Unit Environmental Coordinator (UEC) with any questions/comments. Or you can contact the EMS Program Manager.

Daniel Fisher

EMS Program Manager

210-671-7212

daniel.fisher.26@us.af.mil

ELEMENTS OF EMS

- Environmental Policy
- Environmental Impacts
- Objectives & Targets
- Operational Controls
- Roles & Responsibilities
- Training & Competence
- Internal Environmental Audits
- Corrective & Preventive Actions
- Internal & External Communication
- Emergency Preparedness

