

WELCOME TO JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO

Congratulations on Your Assignment to Joint Base San Antonio, Texas!

The SLPM teams would like to welcome you to Joint Base San Antonio (JBSA), located in the heart of Bexar County, Texas, and the vibrant city of San Antonio. JBSA offers a unique and exciting opportunity to live and serve in the seventh largest city in the United States. JBSA stands as a hub of military excellence with three primary locations--Fort Sam Houston, Lackland and Randolph alongside eight additional operation location spanning over 67 miles.

San Antonio is a dynamic city with much to offer in terms of living, working, and educational opportunities. The JBSA SLPMs are here to support you throughout your transition. We are committed to outreach, advocacy, and partnership initiatives that generate real-time solutions for military-connected students from pre-kindergarten through grade 12 as they navigate global educational challenges and transitions.

JBSA and surrounding areas serve 56 independent school districts, encompassing over 1000+ schools. We understand this may feel like information overload but rest assured that JBSA has a team of SLPMs ready to assist you in navigating your upcoming transition.
